

Voice Clinic Forum 2019: Day 2

Sunday 3rd February 2019

The Governor's Hall, St Thomas's Hospital, Westminster Bridge Rd, London SE1 7EH

The Philadelphia Voice Clinic

(CPD accreditation - TBC)

---

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

- 9.15 am Registration and refreshments
- 9.45 am Housekeeping – Tori Burnay
- 9.50am Introduction of the Philadelphia Voice Clinic Team: *Who we are and how the service runs.
- 10.00am The Sataloff surgical approach to working with professional voice users: *Prof Robert Sataloff
- 11.00am Decision-making, intervention and outcomes in difficult case management - part I
– a Multi-disciplinary approach
- The ageing performer – Case study from the Philadelphia team. “What to do when things do not go to plan.” Mered Harries, UK and Philadelphia Voice Clinic team*
- Management of scar/sulcus – Case study from the Philadelphia team. “What to do when things do not go to plan.” John Rubin, UK and Philadelphia Voice Clinic team*
- Managing large benign vocal fold lesions – Case study from the Philadelphia team. “What to do when things do not go to plan.” Nick Gibbins, UK and Philadelphia Voice Clinic team*
- 12.30pm Lunch
- 1.30pm Decision-making, intervention and outcomes in difficult case management – part II
- The MDT approach
- Superior laryngeal nerve palsy / recurrent laryngeal nerve paresis – Case study from the Philadelphia team. “What to do when things do not go to plan.” Declan Costello, UK and Philadelphia Voice Clinic team*
- Management of acute problems in high-level professional voice users – spoken a sung voice – Case studies from the Philadelphia team. “What to do when things do not go to plan.” Nimesh Patel, UK and Philadelphia Voice Clinic team*
- 2.30pm Research and audit papers from the UK: During this meeting there will be an hour devoted to small on-going research and audit projects on any aspect of voice/voice care from around the country. There will be room for a maximum of 4 short reports (10 minutes per report including questions). If you have a project you would like us to consider please contact us at: administrator@britishvoiceassociation.org.uk
- 3.30pm Tea
- 4.00pm Current research from the Philadelphia team – topics tbc
- 4.30pm Interview and performance – (artist to be confirmed) – Declan Costello
- 5.00pm Close