

Application Form as Training Center for Laryngology Fellows of the ELS

The European Laryngological Society (ELS) fellowship serves to provide Young European ENT specialists the opportunity to work and learn for one year at a training center located in another European Country. The aim of the fellowship is to offer specific laryngological training as well as foster research in the field of laryngology.

European Training Centers that are willing to welcome an ELS Laryngology fellow for a duration of One year are invited to fill in the following form.

Part 1 : Center Identification

Name of the Institution
Department
Physician responsible/Person of contact
Address
City
Postal code
Country
Vehicular language of the institution
Mail
Phone
Fax
Website (optional)

Part 2: Center's specificities

Other languages accepted If YES, which languages	YES	NO
Formal test required (TOEFL, GRE, MCAT etc...)
Tuition fees required	YES	NO
Free or Low price accommodations provided	YES	NO
Expecting the fellow to be on-call If YES, are the ON-calls paid?	YES	NO
Are prepared to receive ELS inspectors within your facility?	YES	NO
Do you have a Voice lab?	YES	NO
Do you organize staff and /or scientific meeting related to laryngology? If YES, How many/year?	YES	NO

Part 3: Center's characteristics: Facts & figures

How many patients contacts/year, that are specific to laryngology, do you have? (Grossly)
How many stroboscopies is your staff performing /year?
How many Video-endoscopic assessments of Swallowing is your staff performing / year?
How many staff member do you consider as laryngologist(s)
How many SLPs are working with you in your institution
How many of these procedures are you performing /year:
Benign lesions phonosurgeries
Framework surgeries
Office based larynx procedures
LEMG
Cancer larynx surgeries
Airways stenosis surgeries
Dysphagia surgeries?	