10th Annual Conference of the LVA (in Hybrid Mode)

01- 03 October 2021

In association Asia Pacific Laryngology Association

A global meeting of professionals engaged in the improvement of voice, airway and swallowing disorders

Invitation

Dear Colleagues

On behalf of the Laryngology and Voice Association and AOI, Lucknow Branch, we are delighted to invite you to participate in the Laryngology Summit 2021, the 10th Annual Conference of the LVA from 01 Oct – 03 Oct 2021.

Laryngology Summit has over the years brought together the best professionals dealing with voice, airway and swallowing disorders from across the globe to share their thoughts and skills. This year as we enter its 10th annual avatar, we are commemorating by conducting this prestigious conference totally free for participants across the world both in online and onsite modes. This promises to be a wonderful opportunity for ENT surgeons, Voice, speech and swallowing therapists and almost anyone dealing in the field to learn and interact with a galaxy of international & national speakers.

We also invite you to share and showcase your expertise and work in the conference to by virtue of vide sessions, e-posters and invitational talks. There are prizes to be won especially for the post graduate students.

For those missing the ‘good-old’ physical meetings, we welcome you all to attend this hybrid conference physically in Lucknow and Pune as well (conditions permitting). So register fast before the capacity runs out !!

Best Wishes and Regards

Rakesh Srivastava
